

BOEING COMPOSITES MALAYSIA

Manufacturing Engineer

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for product configuration, process quality, production yield, manufacturing cost, delivery requirements and the reduction of rework and scrap
- Drive optimization of manufacturing productivity through process improvement
- Review product documentation (Engineering Drawing, Customer Requirements, Process Specification, Business Specification, Material Specification)
- Responsible for the final qualification part process and equipment
- Establish and develop manufacturing plans
- Maintain BOM and Hours documentation
- Support RFQ requirements
- Responsible for Requirement Consumption activities
- Review the requirement of new release Boeing Specifications
- Provide technical support and documentation for process troubleshooting, process improvement and PSE project

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in technical disciplines such as Aerospace Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Manufacturing Engineering, or Industrial Engineering
- Minimum 2 years of professional engineering in related technical field
- Excellent command of English and Bahasa Malaysia in speaking, listening and writing
- Excellent MS Office tools skills
- Competency in ERP software such as Syteline, PLM software such as ENOVIA and 3D drafting software such as CATIA would be an added advantage
- Ability to perform under minimal supervision

Kindly contact or send your resume to the below address:

Human Resources Department
Boeing Composites Malaysia (411595-X)
Lot 224, Kawasan Perindustrian Bukit Kayu Hitam
06050 Bukit Kayu Hitam, Kedah Darul Aman.
Tel: 04-922 2777 / 04-9217732
Email: jobs@boeingcomposites.my